Acting Myktykara Translator to Government.

on the lists of candidates made by the Commonwealth Executive Officer at his next meeting. In case of a difference of opinion among the members, the opinion of the majority shall prevail. The names printed by the printing authority shall be final and shall not be liable to be corrected in any legal proceedings.

8. (a) The Commonwealth Executive Officer shall transmit the roll as ascertained with the orders of the printing authority and the list of parts of the roll so corrected shall be printed as the final roll and copies thereof shall be available not later than the 24th day.

(b) The final roll shall be published in the Gazette before not later than the 15th July and it shall remain open from the date of such publication and remain in force till the publication of a final final electoral roll.

(c) The copies of the final roll shall be signed by the Commonwealth Executive Officer, the roll shall be kept in his office and the other members to be delivered to the collector for record in his office.

(d) The Commonwealth Executive Officer shall not alter the roll while it remains in force, except in cases of clerical errors.

(e) On failure to observe the directions regarding the publication of the electoral roll shall constitute any act to question the validity or constitutionality of the roll as electoral proceedings.

(f) None of the officers mentioned in the provisions of the roll shall be held legally liable for damages for reason only of any mistake or inaccuracy in respect of such roll or any non-compliance with the duties prescribed by or with the effect of the provisions regarding the publication of such roll mentioned in these rules.

9. The Commonwealth Executive Officer shall keep in his office printed copies of the final electoral roll for the purpose of reference by and use in the public and for supply to polling officers.

10. Any notice which is required to be sent by the Commonwealth Executive Officer under these rules or any provision shall be deemed to have been so sent if it is sent by post, to the address of that person as given by him for the purpose, or as appearing on the roll, or if there is no such address in his last known place of abode.

11. On the communication of any claim or objection or other matter by the printing authority and persons interested therein may appear and be heard either in person or by an agent duly authorized in writing.

12. The printing authority may, in its discretion, or at the request of any person interested, require that the evidence submitted by any person shall be in such and may include as much for the purpose.

13. Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, the Commonwealth Executive Officer may, in the case of the final electoral roll for a newly constituted constituency and for special reasons in any other case, dispense with other rules then specified in these rules for the preparation, revision and final publication of the electoral roll and the roll when so prepared, revised and finally published shall come into force from the date of such publication.

14. Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, where the basis of a ward is materially changed or where a new ward is created, the preparation, revision and final publication of the final electoral roll may take place on or before such date as the President of the Board or where a Board is not constituted, the Officer Commanding the station may determine in this behalf and such electoral roll when so prepared, revised and finally published shall come into force from the date of such publication.

LEASE FOR THE PRODUCTS OF THE PALMIRA AND COCOSUT TREES IN THE NEWLY ACQUIRED LAND TO THE SOUTH OF THE GOVERNMENT MENTAL HOSPITAL.

A pulque auction for the sale of the lease of the usufructs of pulque and cañal. Took place in the newly acquired land to the north of the Government Medical Hospital, Mexico, for a period of one year, commencing from 15 September 1917, will be held in the office of the Superintendent of the Hospital at Mexico, on the 21st August 1917 at 10 a.m. by the Superintendent.

2. Deputies who desire to take up the petition should deposit it, in an envelope or address.

5. The highest bidder will have the least reason to believe the rules of accepting or rejecting the bid to be too disadvantageous without assigning a reason for his action.

4. The successful bidder shall pay at once 25 per cent of the amount of bid and the remainder within one week from date of award.

5 The dreams of unsuccessful builders shall, in the close of the nation, be returned to them.

4 The successful Milder shall, after his close of the year, pay into the Post Office Savings Bank an amount of the amount of his annual deposit for the faithful performance of his term and his conduct and proper maintenance of the trust and shall be responsible for handling over the trust in such condition as the service of his term.

7. The successful bidder shall, within three days of the auction, execute the necessary agreement for the provision of the terms for the lease, bidding which will not be accepted and its deposit forfeited. The Superintendent will (hereupon) and without notice to the purchaser be at liberty to resell it and all right to him either by sale or auction or private contract. The difference, if any, arising from the resale being paid to the person insured, who is deemed to have been defrauded.

As like the evolution of the continent, I depend mainly by the successful bidder will still be adjusted towards his dog or be reduced to a if necessary.
